San Francisco/Burlingame, CA – January 11, 2012 – As the best in class hotel in the San Francisco Bay Area, Hyatt Regency San Francisco Airport – Burlingame was recently named as a Top Ten Airport Hotel in the recent Skytrax hotel poll. The property was recognized as number four in the “Best Airport Hotel Awards 2011 in North America.” The property follows the Fairmont Vancouver Airport, which was ranked number one, with Grand Hyatt Dallas/Fort Worth second and Westin Detroit Metropolitan in third position.

The Best Airport Hotel Awards 2011 is based on survey results from over 860,000 hotel guests that completed the Skytrax hotel questionnaire, covering more than 194 airport hotels worldwide. Hotel guests were asked to nominate their favorite airport hotel based on wide ranging criteria that included comfort and cleanliness of rooms, standard of food and beverage outlets and most importantly, the overall quality of staff service. The location and ease of transfer between terminal and hotel also proved to be an important element of customer satisfaction.
